[redacted] Comment:

(1) The tanks and SF guns detained in Parchim probably belonged to the 18th Mecz Div tank unit which is quartered in the Parchim Reiter Kaserne. The troops returned to their military post upon completion of the Third Shock Army maneuvers in the area east of Magdeburg.

(2) The tanks and motorized troops observed heading towards Ludwigslust and Meyenburg on 28 and 29 October 1949 probably belonged to component units of the 18th Mecz Div. The units may have participated in the final maneuvers in the area southeast of Parchim in late October 1949. It appears possible, however, that the tanks moving towards Ludwigslust may have belonged to a tank unit which was transferred from Parchim to Ferleberg.

(3) The unit presumably belonged to an AAA unit which was transferred to Parchim. According to another report, the unit had been in Ferleberg.

(4) [REDACTED] a GHQ unit of the GOFG. [REDACTED] newly observed, mostly in connection with AA guns, in the Third Shock Army area since August 1949. [REDACTED] a newly activated AAA unit of the GOFG which is stationed in the Third Shock Army area.

(5) [REDACTED] confirms the Parchim 60th Mecz Regt of the 18th Mecz Div up to late November 1949.

(6) The Hq 18th Mecz Div had previously been in the Parchim Landratsamt. It is known from another report that the division headquarters was moved from Parchim to Ferleberg. *
